By-law 6. No ram may be used in the registered flock of any member of this Society except from a flock also registered in this Society's Flock Book, or imported Southdown rams. Any infraction of this By-law will entail exclusion of progeny. All rams so used must be entered on a Ram registration form, if not already entered, and must be identified by ear tag. It shall be obligatory for members selling rams of their own breeding for stud purposes to make out a Ram registration form of same in their own names.
